DESCRIPTION

The Trixie 750ml sports bottle is made from stainless steel with a single-wall construction. It features an anti-spill, leakproof lid with a pouring spout and side handles that make it easy to hold and use while on the move or during activities. With a 750 ml capacity, this bottle is suitable for hydrating players, volunteers or event participants. Durable and practical for everyday use, it fits comfortably into sports bags and backpacks for convenient transport.

Offer a custom / personalised sports bottle with logo using our available techniques: object screen printing, digital printing, laser engraving and pad printing (tampography). Ideal for companies, sports clubs, associations, schools, youth movements, events and private individuals. YourVisualHere provides a graphic studio to rework or vectorise logos, no minimum order (from 1 piece) and a free quote within 24 hours on weekdays, with collection at our Evere workshop or delivery in Belgium, France and Luxembourg.
