DESCRIPTION

The Stanley AeroLight™ 470 ml travel mug is stainless steel with a double wall and vacuum insulation, engineered to be lightweight without sacrificing thermal performance. According to the supplier it maintains drink temperatures as specified, features a leak-proof screw lock lid, is dishwasher safe and BPA-free — making it easy to carry in a bag with no fuss over spills or cleaning. Its practical design suits commutes, the office or outdoor activities where a reliable travel mug is needed.

We supply the custom travel mug with logo / personalised using object screen printing, digital printing, pad printing and laser engraving. Perfect for businesses, sports clubs, associations, events and private customers looking for a useful branded item.
