DESCRIPTION

The Stanley Vitalize™ Macro Method shoulder bag is a versatile companion made of recycled polyester, designed for workouts, errands and everyday adventures. It features a main compartment for a jacket and essentials, a rear zip pocket with a deployable divider to secure a bottle or tumbler, and a front zip pocket with an integrated key clip. The padded, adjustable strap—worn on either shoulder—plus the stretch mesh phone pocket and breathable back panel offer comfort and practical everyday use.

This custom / personalised shoulder bag with logo can be branded using digital printing for companies, sports clubs, associations, events or private individuals. YourVisualHere provides a graphic studio to retouch or vectorise logos and includes numbered marking details in the quotation.
