DESCRIPTION

The Schyn wheat-straw bottle opener custom / personalised with logo is a handy tool for opening beer and soft drink bottles. Constructed from stainless steel and wheat straw (the stalk residue after harvest), it reduces plastic use while offering a light, natural feel. The steel provides durability and the wheat-straw element adds a tactile, eco-minded touch; it is easy to rinse and fits neatly in bars, kitchens or event setups for everyday or occasional use.

This bottle opener can be branded using tampography or digital printing to create a distinctive promotional item. Perfect for businesses, sports clubs, associations, events and private individuals seeking a custom bottle opener with logo.
