DESCRIPTION

The Turner recycled GRS 8-litre backpack is designed for everyday use, combining practicality with durability. The exterior in recycled GRS PU and the RPET recycled lining provide a sturdy construction; features include a padded compartment for a 15.6" laptop, an internal strap for a water bottle and a zipped pocket for small items. The main compartment closes with a buckle fastening for secure, easy access. Its compact, classic design makes it a versatile option for commuting and short trips, simple to care for and built to last. Durable backpack
