DESCRIPTION

The Case Logic Invigo recycled accessory pouch is built to organise cables, earphones, adapters and other personal items. Its compact cut makes it ideal to use on its own or slipped into a larger bag. Constructed from 100% recycled 600D polyester with a 150D polyester lining, it features a pen slot, a zipped pocket and several compartments for bulkier items such as headphones. Easy to care for, it offers practical protection for accessories while favouring a more sustainable material choice.

We offer a custom / personalised recycled accessory pouch with logo using object screen printing, multicolour transfer or digital printing. Perfect for businesses, sports clubs, associations, events and individuals seeking a practical, eco-friendly branded item. Request a quote to add your logo or design.
