DESCRIPTION

Unisex neck tube made from merino wool, designed as a protective layer in cool weather. The seamless tubular cut delivers a comfortable fit for hiking, trekking and low- to moderate-intensity outdoor activities. Merino fibres provide softness and natural insulation while remaining breathable; care should follow the manufacturer's guidance. Available in 1 colour (Solid Navy) in adult size.

The pictured item shows clean edge finishes with no closures or pockets, intended to be worn under a jacket or as an insulating neck cover. The knit appears even and supple, suitable for frequent outdoor use while maintaining comfort and shape.

Customisable as a personalised scarf by embroidery. Suitable for companies, sports clubs, associations, events or private individuals; can be ordered from a single piece and our design studio can vectorise your logo to prepare it for embroidery.
