DESCRIPTION

The Fife folding knife in aluminium is a compact, lightweight tool suitable for everyday use by companies, clubs or as event giveaways. Its stainless steel blade provides reliable cutting performance while the aluminium body keeps the overall weight low. Measuring 10x3x1cm, it easily fits into a pocket or small bag.

The photo shows a slim profile with a contoured handle that offers a secure grip and an integrated carabiner for attaching to keys or bags. The clean, sturdy design is built for practical daily use. The item is offered in several colours, including black, and the aluminium finish gives it a modern appearance.

This product can be personalised by laser engraving or pad printing. Minimum order quantity: 50 pieces (colours and sizes combined). Suitable for businesses, associations, sports clubs and events looking for a functional personalised tool for promotion or gifting. Free quote and artwork support are available.
