DESCRIPTION

Slim push-button ballpoint in recycled aluminium, Scribble model, designed for everyday office use or events. Measuring Ø1 x 14.3 cm, the slender barrel provides a lightweight, comfortable grip and writes with blue ink. Care is straightforward for normal daily use.

The metal body features a clip and refined metal accents that improve pocket retention and durability. A stylus-like tip at the top allows touchscreen use; the recycled aluminium finish gives a satin appearance and resists typical wear.

This item can be customised by laser engraving or pad printing, making it a practical personalised pen for companies, clubs, schools, associations and promotional campaigns.
