DESCRIPTION

Knitted RPET gloves with a classic, flexible fit designed to provide everyday warmth and comfort. The stretch knit conforms to the hand while allowing full range of movement; dimensions are 24x12 cm, suitable for standard sizes. The Handnit model comes in several colours, for example black, stone grey and navy, and should be washed gently to maintain elasticity and the integrity of the wrist patch.

Practical details include a ribbed cuff that keeps the glove in place and a small applied patch at the cuff, which offers a neat area for branding. The tight knit gives good wear-resistance and a moderate thermal performance without being bulky, making these gloves versatile for daily use.

These personalised gloves can be marked by embroidery, screen printing (object), multicolour transfer or DTF printing. Suitable for companies, sports clubs, associations and events looking to brand their merchandise. Minimum order: 100 pieces (colours and sizes combined). Free quote within 24 hours on weekdays; graphic studio available to retouch or vectorise logos; collection at our Evere workshop or delivery in Belgium, France and Luxembourg.
