DESCRIPTION

The Warmmuff knitted polyester hand warmer is designed to warm hands and relieve local tension. It features a soft knitted polyester cover with a wide ribbed cuff to hold the PVC heating pad (7.5 x 12 cm) in place. The pad activates instantly by pressing the metal disc and is reusable after immersion in hot water; the cover protects the pad and provides comfortable skin contact. Follow the manufacturer’s care instructions for the cover.

The enveloping shape and ribbed cuff ensure a secure fit around the hand; discreet seams and practical finishes suit everyday use. Available in several colour options such as black, red and beige, making it easy to match to promotional campaigns or events.
