The Nonette Wrist phone cord is made from RPET for everyday convenience. Its recycled polyester construction gives a sturdy, rope-like feel in a compact size (30 x 0.6 cm), designed to be worn on the wrist. Ideal for trade shows, events or activities where keeping a phone accessible is important.

The cord features a flat loop with a connector and an adjustable slider to set length and fit. Visible finishes include robust plastic fittings and a flat tab intended to attach to a phone accessory; the synthetic material makes it easy to use and maintain.
