DESCRIPTION

The Korovin Pouch is an RPET travel pouch designed to carry essentials on short trips and outdoor activities. Its slim rectangular profile (12.5 x 2 x 20 cm) provides flat storage for a phone, documents or small accessories. The RPET fabric gives a structured feel and good shape retention while remaining easy to care for. The pouch is offered in several colours, for example black, blue or beige.

Practical details include a zip closure along the edge and an adjustable cord strap with a cord lock for wearing across the body. A small woven label is sewn into the side seam and edge stitching provides a tidy finish. The slim cut makes it convenient under a jacket and ideal for urban use.
