DESCRIPTION

Small polypropylene imitation of Graptopetalum paraguayense presented in a compact square pot. This mini decorative item (5.7 x 5.7 x 7.8 cm) brings a maintenance-free touch of greenery to desks, reception areas or hospitality settings. The PP material gives a matte appearance and stable form, making it suitable for indoor display.

The pot is filled with decorative pebbles that hold the succulent in place and enhance its realistic look. Its small footprint makes it easy to position on counters, shelves or inside gift boxes. No watering or special lighting is required, which makes it a practical, long-lasting giveaway or desk accessory.

Promotional object (non-textile) — minimum order: 50 pieces (colours and sizes combined). Customisation techniques available: tampography, digital printing and doming, applied to the pot surface to carry your logo or message.
