DESCRIPTION

The Alove 50 ml aloe vera gel comes in a refillable PET bottle designed for travel-friendly personal care. Its compact dimensions (11.5 x 4.6 x 2.5 cm) and lightweight construction make it convenient for everyday carry, suitable for both individual and organisational use. Simple to maintain: rinse if necessary and refill with care.

The PP flip cap offers controlled dispensing and helps prevent leaks, while the aluminium carabiner provides an easy attachment to bags or belts. The bottle’s slim profile and transparent PET reveal the gel inside. Supplied in 1 colour (for example transparent green).

Order this personalised personalised care gel using digital printing, doming or pad printing for corporate giveaways, campaigns, events, clubs or private gifts. Minimum order quantity: 100 pieces (colours and sizes combined). We provide free quotes and graphic retouching/vectorisation via our studio.
