DESCRIPTION

Rectangular PP lunch box, model Sarnie, with an 800 ml capacity designed for everyday use. Its compact dimensions (21.5 x 12 x 6.6 cm) make it ideal for carrying a single meal. The polypropylene construction gives a smooth finish and keeps the container lightweight and easy to clean by hand. It features an integrated carry handle and a hermetic lid with side clips to secure the closure and help prevent leaks.

The design is practical with sturdy construction for repeated use. The folding handle improves portability while the side clasps ensure the lid stays firmly in place. The lunch box is available in several colour options, for example Black, Petrol and Navy, making it simple to match your organisation's branding.

This personalised lunch box can be marked by Digital printing, Doming, Pad printing or Laser engraving. Recommended for companies, sports clubs, associations and events looking for a useful branded item; minimum order is 13 pieces (colours and sizes combined). Our studio can retouch or vectorise your logo before production.
