DESCRIPTION

Compact personalised sports bag in RPET, designed for running and hiking. The Steady model is a waist-style bag with an adjustable strap and buckle, a central zipped pocket and two side compartments suitable for bottles or small items. It is lightweight and durable, worn at the waist to keep essentials accessible while preserving comfort on the move.

The RPET finish has a tight weave and a technical appearance, with reinforced seams around the pockets and a flat profile when empty. Measuring 47 x 13 cm, it accommodates energy bars, a phone and keys without restricting movement. Care is straightforward: spot clean and air dry.
