DESCRIPTION

The Nieve RPET polar blanket, sized 130 x 170 cm, is designed for home comfort and relaxation. The ribbed fleece texture visible in the photo gives a plush, cosy feel that's perfect for sofa use or as an extra layer on a bed. Made from RPET, it is easy to care for and maintains its soft pile with normal machine washing following the supplier's instructions.

The blanket features a simple, seam-finished edge and a striking striped relief pattern rather than closures or pockets, offering a clean and modern appearance. It is offered in several colourways, for example Blue, Petrol and Kaki, and is presented rolled with kraft paper and a black ribbon for a neat retail look.

Customisation options make this item suitable for companies, clubs, associations and events: digital printing, screen printing and pad printing are available.
