DESCRIPTION

The Denipur apron is a unisex kitchen apron made from a PET-cotton blend, intended for professional kitchens and home cooks alike. At 63 x 83 cm it provides full coverage and comfortable wear with adjustable cotton neck and waist straps secured by rivets and snap buttons. The denim-style fabric gives it a sturdy, neatly finished look while remaining practical for daily use.

Practical details include three front pockets ideal for recipe notes or small utensils, reinforced with rivets for durability, and contrasting straps for added structure. Each apron is supplied in an individual box, making it suitable for catering staff presentation or corporate gifting.

This apron can be personalised for companies, restaurants, clubs and private customers using flex, multicolour transfer, DTF printing, embroidery, digital printing and pad printing. Minimum order: 10 pieces (colours and sizes combined). Our studio can vectorise and refine your logo before production.
