DESCRIPTION

This 600 ml double-walled stainless steel bottle offers vacuum insulation for keeping drinks hot or cold in a slim, travel-friendly shape. Its tapered body provides a secure grip and a comfortable hand feel; the unisex design suits office use, commuting and leisure activities. For best results, hand wash to preserve insulation and finish.

The lid features a magnetic closure and a cord loop for easy carrying. With dimensions Ø6.5 x 26 cm it fits most cup holders and bags. The stainless steel construction delivers reliable durability in everyday use; avoid dishwashing to protect the insulating properties.

This personalised bottle can be decorated by laser engraving, screen printing on objects, pad printing, digital printing or doming depending on the desired effect and print area. Minimum order: 10 pieces. Recommended for companies, sports clubs, associations, events and corporate gifts — our studio can retouch or vectorise your logo before production.
