DESCRIPTION

Practical and compact, this personalised Accessoires de bureau en papier personnalisé(e) Memo Seed features a paper cover embedded with poppy seeds and a pad of 5 coloured adhesive tabs (8.3 x 5.4 x 0.4 cm). Designed for quick notes and reminders, it fits easily into a bag or on a desk. When the notes are used up, the seed-containing cover can be planted to grow poppies, giving the product an eco-friendly second life.

The cover protects the tabs and opens flat for easy use. The five bright tabs help organise information visually and the adhesive is strong enough to stay in place without damaging documents. Lightweight and unobtrusive, it is suitable for everyday office use, meetings and educational settings; the cover also shows punched details that streamline handling.

Customisation is available by tampography, making this Memo Seed suitable for companies, clubs, associations, schools and individuals who want a useful, sustainable promotional item. Minimum order: 500 pieces (colours and sizes combined).
