DESCRIPTION

This paper desk accessory in a lightbulb shape is made from seed-embedded paper and measures 22.3 x 6 cm. It includes a 13 cm ruler, a small pad of sticky notes and five coloured adhesive tabs. The item is notable for containing poppy seeds: once the notes are used, the paper can be planted to grow flowers. Lightweight and easy to slip into a notebook, it functions as a practical promotional bookmark.

The lightbulb head provides a convenient grip and the printed ruler is useful for quick measurements. The note pads are fixed to the front and the coloured tabs help organise documents. The paper shows the typical seed-paper texture and the product is offered in multiple colour options, including white, depending on availability.
