DESCRIPTION

This 2 m bamboo tape measure pairs practical use with a natural look. The rounded bamboo case (23.5 x 6 x 2 cm) houses a 2-metre metal tape, suitable for everyday measuring tasks. Bamboo is a natural material and may show slight variations in colour and grain; maintenance is simple with a dry or slightly damp cloth. Compact and lightweight, it's easy to store in a toolbox or carry bag.

The case includes a wrist strap for transport and hanging, and an automatic rewind mechanism for quick, one-handed use. Smooth finishes provide a comfortable grip and an understated, professional appearance. Available in natural wood tones, the design suits promotional and practical applications alike.

Customisation options: digital printing, doming, laser engraving and pad printing — perfect for companies, clubs, associations and events. This is a personalised tape measure well-suited for trade shows and corporate gifts. Minimum order: 100 pieces (colours and sizes combined); smaller quantities may be possible with an additional fee. Free quote within 24 hours on weekdays; collection in our Evere workshop or delivery in Belgium, France and Luxembourg.
