DESCRIPTION

The Yapo wireless charger is a compact ABS accessory designed to charge a smartphone while acting as a convenient desk stand. Measuring 5.7 x 8.6 x 1 cm, it is easy to carry and place on a workstation. The set includes a Type-C to Type-C cable with converters (including Micro-B and an AC adapter) and storage for two Nano SIM cards plus one TF card, making it practical for business travel and event use.

The photo shows the unit positioned horizontally to provide a comfortable viewing angle while charging. The ABS housing has clean lines and a smooth finish; the base holds the phone securely during charging. Its compact footprint and straightforward connections suit everyday use at the office or on the move.
