DESCRIPTION

This unisex cotton lanyard measures 50 cm in length with a narrow 0.45 cm strap, offering a comfortable solution for carrying badges and keys. The round bamboo detail adds a natural accent and may show slight variations in colour and grain typical of bamboo; the cotton strap provides a soft feel suitable for everyday wear at events, conferences or in the workplace.

The Kara model features a metal clip and a safety breakaway to reduce snag risks. Its simple construction makes daily use straightforward and care is minimal: avoid prolonged moisture exposure to protect the bamboo and hand wash gently if needed.
