DESCRIPTION

The Caly foldable picnic blanket is made from RPET with a PEVA-coated reverse for water resistance, intended for outdoor leisure and events. It measures 120 x 150 cm and, as shown folded in the photo, features a zipped flap and a short carry strap for easy transport. Available in several colours such as black, blue and red.

The blanket folds into a compact pouch with a zip closure and includes a front zip pocket for small belongings. Its RPET construction keeps it lightweight and practical for picnics, camping trips and outdoor gatherings.

Customisation options include screen printing, transfer, DTF printing and flex, making it suitable for companies, clubs, associations and promotional events.
