DESCRIPTION

The Aosta push-button ballpoint is made from aluminium with a rubberised finish for a comfortable grip and everyday use. Its slim profile at Ø1x13.5 cm makes it a lightweight, professional writing instrument suitable for offices, trade shows and mail-outs. It is available in several colours, for example black, red or green, and comes with blue ink.

Chrome accents on the tip, clip and two decorative rings add a polished look and enhance durability. The rubberised surface improves hold and resists fingerprints; maintenance is limited to a gentle wipe to preserve the matte feel.
