DESCRIPTION

The Hamlight multifunction torch is a compact car accessory (Ø3.8 x 16 cm) combining a flashlight with several handy tools. It features a stainless steel body with rubberised finishes for improved grip, three lighting modes and a zoom function. Requires 3 AAA batteries (not included). Built-in tools include a safety hammer, cutter and other fold-out implements.

The stainless steel construction and rubber details seen in the photo suggest durable everyday use while the compact dimensions make it simple to store in a glovebox or door pocket. The size and textured grip provide stable handling for roadside or on-the-go tasks.

Customisation available via laser engraving or pad printing, perfect for fleet accessories, corporate gifts, clubs, events or private orders. Minimum order: 25 pieces (colours and sizes combined). Free quote within 24 hours on weekdays, collection at our Evere workshop or delivery in Belgium, France and Luxembourg.
