The lower panel is reinforced with a jute strip for structure and tactile contrast; care is straightforward for cotton. This model is available in 1 colour, for example beige.

The bag closes with a double drawstring that also functions as shoulder cords, with reinforced corner seams for improved durability. The visible details show a jute bottom panel stitched to the cotton body and sturdy round cords. Compact dimensions for easy storage and a clear printable area on the front.

Customisable for companies, clubs, associations, schools or private customers. Suitable marking techniques: screen printing, transfer, DTF printing and flex.
