DESCRIPTION

Foldable rain poncho, model Sprinkle Pla, made from biodegradable PE for temporary wet-weather protection. Measuring 120 x 128 cm, it provides generous coverage and is supplied in a biodegradable pouch. Lightweight and compact when folded, it is practical to carry for events and outdoor activities. Care: intended for occasional use and disposal according to the manufacturer's biodegradability guidance.

The poncho features a straightforward, functional design with no additional technical details provided. Its shape allows quick application and the PE material ensures waterproof performance while remaining discreet in its pouch. The compact packaging reduces storage and distribution footprint.

Customisable by digital printing, this poncho is suitable for companies, clubs, associations and events looking for a promotional rainwear option. Minimum order: 100 pieces (colours and sizes combined). Our graphic studio can prepare your artwork and we provide a free weekday quote.
