DESCRIPTION

The Slatestar slate hanging ornament is a unisex, flat star-shaped decoration that hangs from a simple cord. Its matte, subtly textured slate surface gives a natural, understated look suitable for seasonal displays, shop windows or corporate gifts. At 9.5 x 9.5 x 0.4 cm it is compact and ideal when you need a discreet decorative touch for a tree, table setting or place card.

The precise star-cut and pre-drilled hanging hole make installation straightforward: thread the cord through the hole for a stable hang. Care is minimal — light dusting is usually sufficient to preserve the slate's natural texture without special treatments.

Personalise this personalised decoration with laser engraving, pad printing or digital printing. A minimum order of 50 pieces applies (colours and sizes combined). Well suited to companies, associations, clubs and events looking for a subtle, durable promotional or gift item.
