DESCRIPTION

This double-walled borosilicate glass mug is designed for coffee or tea with a 220 ml capacity. Its rounded shape and handle give a comfortable grip while the double wall helps insulate hot drinks without adding weight. The natural bamboo lid doubles as a coaster and will show slight variations typical of natural bamboo.

The Sion model features a star pattern on the inner wall and clean finishing around the handle and rim. It's simple to care for — suitable for hot beverages — but avoid sudden thermal shocks when handling the glass and bamboo components.
