Practical details include an interior neck tape in a matching tone and double-needle hems at the sleeves and bottom for durable finishing. The jersey knit provides slight stretch for comfort while maintaining shape, making it suitable for teams, events and casual workwear.

This personalised T-shirt can be customised from one piece and accepts the following techniques: screen printing transfers, Transfert MSO, DTF printing and flex. Recommended for companies, sports clubs, associations, schools, events and private customers looking for branded or event T-shirts.
