DESCRIPTION

This Dublin ceramic mug holds 300 ml and is suited to everyday use in offices, clubs or at home. Its straight profile and comfortable handle provide an easy grip, while the stoneware finish gives a robust yet smooth feel. It is dishwasher-compatible following standard ceramic care and fits neatly into coffee-service sets for meetings and events.

Supplied in an individual corrugated gift box, the mug measures Ø8 x 9.5 cm and features a clean, practical design without unnecessary details — available in several colour options (for example white) depending on stock. Its shape and capacity make it practical for bulk gifting or workplace kitchens.

Customisation can be done by screen printing, pad printing or sublimation. Ideal for companies, sports clubs, associations, schools, youth movements and private customers. Minimum order: 12 pieces (colours and sizes combined) — smaller quantities may be possible with extra fees.
