DESCRIPTION

This unisex 6-panel visor is made from 100% cotton twill, featuring an open top and an elasticated rear band for a one-size fit. The front interior includes an absorbent terry sweatband to improve comfort during outdoor activities and help manage perspiration. Lightweight and breathable, it is suitable for sports, events and everyday promotional use and is washed like a regular cotton garment.

The six-panel construction gives a structured silhouette while the internal terry provides useful functionality. The elasticated back ensures a secure, flexible fit without a rigid closure — convenient for giveaways and prolonged wear. Available in several colourways, for example Navy and White.

This visor can be personalised from a single piece for companies, sports clubs, associations and private customers. Available decoration methods: screen print transfer, MSO transfer, DTF printing, flex (flocking) and embroidery — our design studio can vectorise or retouch your logo prior to production.
