DESCRIPTION

Unisex corduroy cap offering a comfortable fit and contemporary look. The curved visor and soft velvet-like pile provide a refined appearance, while the adjustable hook-and-loop fastening ensures a One Size fit. The textured surface of the fabric adds visual depth and is straightforward to care for following standard guidance for synthetic materials.

The cap is available in several colours, for example Dark Olive, Minorca Navy or Moka, and its clean construction suits both everyday wear and smarter casual outfits. Visible details in the photo include a structured crown and precise stitching around the visor and panels, which help maintain the cap's shape.

Customisable from one piece on a wide range of textile, this is a practical option as a personalised cap for companies, sports clubs, associations and private customers. Personalisation techniques available: screen print transfer, MSO transfer, DTF printing, flex and embroidery. Our design studio can vectorise or retouch your logo.
