This flat lamb plush for babies is made from soft polyester and features a double-layer square blanket with an integrated lamb head. The cuddly material feels gentle and is easy to care for; it meets the European EN71 toy safety standard and is suitable for children of all ages. One size makes it a practical comfort toy.

The design includes a zip access to facilitate embroidery without affecting the finish. Stitched edges and neat finishing ensure it stands up to everyday use. Available in 1 colour, for example cream.

This personalised plush toy can be personalised from one piece and is ideal for companies, clubs, associations, schools and private gifts. Possible decorating techniques: embroidery, DTF printing, flex, transfer and other markings suited to soft textiles. Our graphic studio can vectorise or refine your logo before production.
