DESCRIPTION

This women’s blouse/jacket Eugenie from Neoblu offers a straight cut and a soft, comfortable feel thanks to its PET-cotton blend (65% recycled polyester / 35% cotton). It features a left-side overlapping press-stud closure and a low stand collar that keeps movement easy in kitchen and service environments. Long sleeves include a double-compartment pocket on the left arm and breathable inserts at the armholes to reduce overheating during shifts. Available in multiple colours, including Deep Black and Optical White, and in sizes XS to 3XL.

Practical touches include side vents for greater freedom of movement and a back with seams that improves fit and mobility. Cuffs include a slit for easier putting on and the design is suited to professional, daily use with straightforward care for technical textiles.

This blouse/jacket can be personalised for businesses, restaurants, schools, clubs and individuals using embroidery, screen printing, DTF printing, flex or multicolour transfer. Minimum order: 5 pieces (colours and sizes combined). A graphic studio can vectorise or refine your logo.
