DESCRIPTION

This unisex parka in recycled polyester offers weather protection with comfort: a standard cut, three-panel hood and an ecru sherpa lining across the body and hood for soft insulation. The fabric has a waterproof membrane and thermally sealed seams while remaining breathable. Available in several colours such as Black, Navy Blue and Organic Khaki, it comes in sizes XS to 3XL.

Designed for everyday wear, the parka features two piped side pockets with reversed zips, an internal chest pocket and elasticated sleeve hems. The closure is a recycled waterproof zip with dual metal pullers; the interior is faced in the main fabric and the sleeves are lined with padded 210T taffeta for ease of movement. The cut reaches around the hips, suitable for urban use and moderate outdoor activity.
