Integrated under-short contains elastane for freedom of movement; the fabric is stable and resists curling, available in several colours such as Black and White and sizes XS to XXL. The stated weight gives a clean look and reliable performance on court.

Visible details include a flat, wide waistband, a discreet hem and an inner short with two ball pockets, useful in both training and matches. The design is functional and streamlined, suited to teams and players seeking practical sportswear.

Customisable from one piece, this item is suitable as a personalised skirt for clubs, companies, associations, schools and private customers. Personalisation techniques offered: embroidery, DTF printing, flex, screen printing, transfer and embroidered patches. Our studio can vectorise or retouch your logo for printing.
