DESCRIPTION

Unisex armband made from a stretch fabric blend (70% polyester, 30% elastane), intended to be worn on the arm during sports or team activities. The rectangular design includes a Velcro fastening for quick adjustment on one size, the elastic fabric ensuring a comfortable fit without restricting movement.

The item is offered in several colours, including White and Yellow, and comes in single or two-tone versions. Its simple construction provides a smooth surface suitable for precise, legible personalization and a low-profile look while in use.

Customisable from a single piece, this armband is well suited to embroidery for a durable, professional finish. Recommended for companies, sports clubs, associations, event staff and individuals who need clear role identification on the field.
