DESCRIPTION

Unisex chef jacket in a durable serge weave (65% polyester / 35% cotton), designed for professional kitchen use. It features a straight cut with short sleeves and a stand collar, plus a double-breasted, wrap-front fastening with resin buttons for a tidy, professional look. The fabric is suitable for industrial washing and household washing, and the jacket is available in several colours including Black, Steel and White, in sizes XS to 4XL.

Practical details include a pen pocket on the left sleeve, robust resin buttons and the serge construction that balances softness and strength for everyday wear. The short-sleeve, unisex design allows freedom of movement, making it well suited to restaurants, caterers and culinary schools.

Customisation is possible from one piece: techniques available include DTF printing, screen printing (Transfer Sérigraphique), transfer (Transfert MSO), flex (heat transfer) and embroidery. Ideal for companies, hospitality teams, clubs, associations and individuals. Our studio can retouch or vectorise your logo.
