DESCRIPTION

The Russell T-shirt Classic for men features a tubular cut and a ribbed crew neck designed for everyday comfort. Made from ring-spun cotton (Light Oxford contains a viscose blend), it has a soft hand and a smooth surface that works well for branding. It comes in several colours and sizes S to 4XL, making it suitable for corporate, team and personal use.

Details include a shoulder-to-shoulder tape and double-needle finish at the neck for improved durability. Short sleeves and a straight hem give a clean, versatile silhouette, while the tubular construction eliminates side seams for a neat front appearance.

This personalised T-shirt can be printed from a single piece using screen-printing transfers, MSO transfers, DTF printing or flex flocking. Recommended for companies, sports clubs, associations, schools and private customers. Free quotes and a graphic studio are available to vectorise or retouch your logo.
