DESCRIPTION

This men's hooded sweatshirt features a slim cut and lightweight 100% polyester fabric (135 g/m²) with stretch at the seams and hood for freedom of movement. It is suited to sports and everyday wear, offering comfortable, breathable performance and easy care.

The design includes a full-length zip, an adjustable hood with drawcord and zipped side pockets for secure storage. Cuffs and hem are non-elastic, giving a clean straight fit. It comes in several colours, for example Grey and Black, and is available in sizes S to 3XL.

This personalised sweatshirt can be produced from one piece on a wide range of textile using DTF printing, screen printing (transfer), transfer, flex and embroidery. Recommended for companies, sports clubs, associations, schools, youth movements and private customers who need a technical, customisable garment.
