DESCRIPTION

The Galaxy men’s V-neck jumper is a warm, structured garment designed for everyday wear. It features a men’s cut with set-in sleeves, ribbed cuffs and hem for a tidy fit. Made from a polyester-cotton blend (supplier notes 49% cotton, 49% acrylic, 2% polyamide), it balances comfort with durability. The knit density provides warmth and shape retention; follow care instructions for mixed fibres to maintain fit and feel. Please consult the supplier size chart for sizing guidance.

We supply custom V-neck jumpers with logo via embroidery and screen printing, ideal for companies, sports clubs, associations, schools, youth movements, events and private customers. No minimum order (from 1 piece). Free quote within 24 hours on weekdays. Standard production, collection at our Evere workshop or delivery in Belgium, France and Luxembourg. Our design studio can vectorise or retouch your logo before marking.
