DESCRIPTION

Fitted flared legging for women with a snug fit at the hips and a gentle flare towards the hem. Made from 80% polyester and 20% elastane, it provides stretch and support while remaining comfortable for movement. Available in 1 colour (Black) and sizes XS to XXL, this pant is suitable for sports, yoga sessions or everyday wear thanks to its flexible fabric and clean lines.

The design features a gusset panel at the crotch for improved mobility, a concealed pocket inside the back waistband for a key or small item, and a double-stitched hem for lasting edge strength. The garment is unbranded on the label, which makes relocating a logo straightforward.

This pant/pantacourt can be personalised from a single piece using embroidery, DTF printing, flex, screen printing or transfer methods depending on the finish required. Recommended for companies, sports clubs, associations and private customers seeking a personalised Pantalon/Pantacourt.
